

Sharnell Weathersby, MBA

About Sharnell

Sharnell Weathersby is a transformational leader and communicator as a Speaker, CEO and Founder. She helps working women thrive without compromise as they navigate the trenches of life and career, prioritizing their wellbeing.

Through speaking, a monthly podcast and an online community, she empowers and equips women to be in position and ready for what's next in realizing their full potential and growing with excellence. Her two-part Coaching and Consulting program equips with the tools needed to be a good manager of self and leader of business or ministry endeavors.

Sharnell's expertise will serve your audience as she shares from her own past lessons in striving and missteps. An experienced corporate leader and business owner, she offers key insights into what it takes for working women today to realize their full potential.

She is an executive's wife, mother of two, business owner, leader in women's ministry, graduate of the University of Illinois Gies College of Business and holds an MBA from Eastern University.

Testimonials

"I have the wind I needed and finally feel like I can now fly!"

Dana R., Senior Vice President
IT Industry

"What a blessing it was to hear and learn from Sharnell. Her message focused on excellence in all aspects of our lives but without compromising what matters most as a woman of faith. Exactly what I needed, I now feel ready and more prepared!"

Sandy R., School Administrator
Elementary Education

"Thank you for sharing your journey with an audience that was captivated by your wealth of knowledge and transparency. Your message was clear and inspirational, and you left a lasting impression on those who now dare to take their own next step."

Amelia J., President
National Black MBA Association, Chicago Chapter

Now that you're at the table. Are you ready to thrive, without compromising what matters most?

Signature Message

Using industry insights, the Word of God, sharing her story and providing coaching tips, Sharnell's message includes:

"Thrive Without Compromise - Now that you have a seat at the table. Are you ready? How we grow with excellence in life and career, without compromising what matters most.

Prioritizing health and wellbeing, reframing your mindset, and redefining success as a woman of faith."

- Be Honest. A reflective approach.
- Be Practical. A strategic approach.
- Be Intentional. An actionable approach.

Attendee benefit: Sharnell brings a message framed for your audience that will empower and equip through tools and practical life application.

For More, Find Sharnell on...

@sharnellweathersby

www.sharnellweathersby.com

@sharnellweathersby